1. INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000, (PAIA) gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by any public or private body that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. PAIA sets out the procedures attached to such request in relation to DREAM HOTELS & RESORTS (PTY) LTD (THE COMPANY).

Section 9 of PAIA, however, recognises that the right to access to information is subject to certain justifiable limitations, for instance limitations aimed at:

- the reasonable protection of privacy;
- commercial confidentiality; and
- effective, efficient and good governance.

Section 50 of PAIA obliges private bodies to compile a manual, which would assist a person to obtain access to information held by the private body and stipulates the minimum requirements a manual has to comply with.

Additionally, under the Protection of Personal Information Act 2013 (POPI) the Company is required to be open and transparent about how the Company handles personal information and allows individuals to access and correct their personal Information. Under POPI everyone has various rights in respect of his/her personal information.

These rights include the right to ask the Company to:

- Confirm whether or not the Company handles your personal information;
- Grant access to your personal information;
- Correct, destroy or delete your personal information if your personal information held by the Company is inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, out of date, incomplete, or was obtained illegally; or
- Stop using your personal information in particular ways, for example by asking the Company to stop using your information for direct marketing purposes.

The purpose of this manual is therefore to inform a person on how to obtain access to records held by the Company and thereby giving effect to Section 50 of PAIA.

2. SOUTH AFRICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION GUIDE ON PAIA

The South African Human Rights Commission (SAHRC) has compiled a guide, in an easily comprehensible form and manner, as to how a person may exercise any right contemplated in the PAIA.

This guide is available in all the official languages from the SAHRC.

A request fee of R50-00, or proof of payment thereof, must accompany the request for information. Payment of the request fee, may be made at any commercial bank and deposited in the following Bank account in favour of THE COMPANY: Bank account: Branch code

Step 2: Validation and acknowledgement

The information officer receives and validates the request to see whether the required information is available within THE COMPANY. The request is then accepted, rejected or transferred to the rightful keepers of the required information. An acknowledgement is then forwarded to the requester to confirm the status of the request.

Step 3: Information processing

If the request is accepted, THE COMPANY will gather and prepare the information and calculate the relevant cost involved. The cost is calculated in para.6.3.

Step 4: Final Notification

The requester will be informed of the completion of the request as well as the outstanding fees payable.

Step 5: Payment and delivery

Once the payment as stipulated in Step 4 is received (following the same payment process as stipulated in Step 1), the information is released to the requester.

General Information

The prescribed form must be completed with enough particularity to enable the Information Officer to identify:

- The record or records requested;
- The identity of the requester;
- Which form of access is required, if the request is granted;
- The postal address or fax number of the requester.

The COMPANY will process the request within 30 days, unless the requester has stated special reasons, which would satisfy the Information Officer, that circumstances dictate that the above time periods should not be complied with. The 30-day period within which the COMPANY has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request may be extended for a further period of not more than thirty days if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of the institution and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 day period. The COMPANY will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.

If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally. The requester must pay the prescribed fee, before any further processing can take place.

6.3 Fees

The Act provides for two types of fees:

- (a) A request fee, which will be a standard fee; and
- (b) an access fee, which must be calculated by taking into account reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

When the request is received by the Information Officer, such Officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee (if any), before further processing of the request.

If a search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangements to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee, which would be payable if the request is granted.

The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the relevant fees as indicated below.

A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonable required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure, including making arrangement to make it available.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

The fees are set out under ANNEXURE A.

7. REMEDIES WHERE REQUESTS FOR ACCESS TO INFORMATION ARE REFUSED

7.1 Refusal of request

The main grounds for THE COMPANY to refuse a request follow:

- (1) The mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
- (2) The mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains:
  - trade secrets of that third party;
  - financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
  - information disclosed in confidence by a third party to THE COMPANY, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition.
- (3) Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;

- (4) The mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- (5) The mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- (6) The operations of THE COMPANY;
- (7) The commercial activities of THE COMPANY, which may include:
  - trade secrets of THE COMPANY;
  - financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of THE COMPANY;
  - information which, if disclosed could put THE COMPANY at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
  - a computer programme which is owned by THE COMPANY, and which is protected by copyright;
- (8) The research information of THE COMPANY or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of THE COMPANY, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.

Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

7.2 Appeal

- (1) A requester may lodge an internal appeal against a decision of the Information Officer of THE COMPANY -
  - (a) to refuse a request for access; or
  - (b) taken in terms of section 22, 26(1) or 29(3), in relation to that requester, with the Minister for Provincial and Local Government.

(2) A third party may lodge an internal appeal against a decision of the Information Officer of THE COMPANY to grant a request for access.

An internal appeal must be lodged in the prescribed form:

- Within 60 days;
- if notice to a third party is required, within 30 days after notice is given to the appellant of the decision appealed against;
- it must be delivered or sent to the Information Officer of THE COMPANY at his or her addresses, or fax number;
- it must identify the subject of the internal appeal and state the reasons for the internal appeal and may include any other relevant information known to the appellant,
- if, in addition to a written reply, the appellant wishes to be informed of the decision on the internal appeal in any other manner, must state that manner and provide the necessary particulars to be so informed;
- if applicable, must be accompanied by the prescribed appeal fee, and must specify a postal address or fax number.

The prescribed form for an internal appeal is available on the COMPANY website at <http://www.dreamresorts.co.za> or may be obtained upon request from :-

If an appeal is lodged after the expiry of the period referred to, the Minister must, upon good cause shown, allow the late lodging of the appeal.

If the Minister disallows the late lodging of the appeal, he or she must give notice of that decision to the person who lodged the appeal.

A requester lodging an appeal against the refusal of his or her request for access must pay the prescribed appeal fee (if any).

If the prescribed appeal fee is payable in respect of an appeal, the decision on the appeal may be deferred until the fee is paid.

As soon as reasonably possible, but in any event within ten (10) working days after receipt of an appeal, the Information Officer of THE COMPANY must submit the following to the Minister:

- The appeal together with his or her reasons for the decision concerned;
- and, if the appeal is against the refusal or granting of a request for access, the name, postal address, phone and fax number and electronic mail address, whichever is available, of any third party that must be notified of the request.
